Music in McLean announces the Silver Jubilee Concert honoring Artistic Director, Paul Skevington, and his twenty-five years at Saint Luke Catholic Church.

The concert will feature Paul playing the Franck Chorale No. 2 and the Bach Passacaglia and Fugue on the Steiner-Reck Organ. Renowned trumpeter and Paul's long-time collaborator, Phil Snedecor, will play the famous Albinoni Adagio and his arrangement of the Bernstein Simple Song.

The highlight of the concert will be a newly commissioned work composed by Thomas Colohan entitled A Joyful Noise (Psalm 100 with Alleluias). Based on Psalm 100, the anthem will feature the combined Saint Luke Festival Choir, Women's Choir, and Children's Choirs, accompanied by organ and trumpet.

A gala reception will follow.
The free concert is on Sunday, April 29 at 4:00.
Hope you will join us!

Saint Luke Catholic Church is located at 7001 Georgetown Pike, McLean VA 22101.
